Satisfyer attracts 28 new distributors

The Satisfyer technology, which has been registered for patent internationally and developed in Germany, appears to break all the records. The team headed by Vice President of Sales Jerome Bensimon has managed to attract 28 distributors within 10 weeks.

„We are very proud that we have been able to gain worldwide representation in such a short period of time and can also celebrate selling the 225,000th Satisfyer this week. In addition, we are currently negotiating with more distributors and will have some surprises in store in the coming days“, says Sabine Schuchardt, sales manageress in Europe. „Our free sample range for specialist retailers ensures that our leading technology, especially with regards to the waterproof feature and the associated hygiene (no water or other fluids can enter the device), convinces almost every specialist retailer. Moreover, the high profit margin guarantees that we can offer retail an innovative and attractively priced product with high rates of return.“

New partners in North and South America include ECN USA, Metro Distributor USA, Helix Toys USA, Kaytel media Canada, Landco Import Canada and Wham Picture Mexico, in Europe Tonga Holland, Rimba Holland, Scala Holland, EDC Holland, Marc Dorcel France, Grutinet Spain, Dildos Assorted SL Spain, DreamLove Spain, Flex Multimedia Group Switzerland, FunConcept Czech Republic, Debra net Hungary, JSC Juntos Baltic States, ANDREY Russia, Kema Russia, Purefun Group Sweden, ABS Holdings England and Creative Conceptions England. Furthermore, the worldwide distributors include Mystique Mistress South Africa, Import Master Israel, Loewie Trading China / Hong Kong and Windsor Wholesale and IonBrook Australia.
